

CAPT. "JOE" SHAW HOLDS GENERAL ELECTION THIS YEAR WHOLLY UNJUSTIFIED—FORMER LIBERAL LEADER DELIVERS FIGHTING ADDRESS AT MACLEOD

Capt. Joseph T. Shaw, former leader of the Liberal party in Alberta, delivered a fighting speech Monday night here in the interests of J. W. McDonald, K. C., present leader of the party, who is opposing W. H. Shield, sitting U. F. A. member, in the present election.

Councillor Day, chairman of the meeting in introducing the speakers said:

You have come here this evening to listen to addresses from Alderman Dr. Galbraith of Lethbridge and Capt. Jos. Shaw, until recently leader of the Provincial Liberal Party. Our present leader, and candidate in the Macleod constituency Mr. McDonald, is forced to be absent in the northern part of the province and requested me to express to you his appreciation of your attending this meeting and his regrets that he is unable to be present.

I have very little to say as chairman of this meeting. It is my opinion that a chairman usually says too much rather than too little, you want to hear Dr. Galbraith and Capt. Shaw. But on account of some remarks made in this hall on Saturday evening regarding Mr. McDonald's work as Mayor of the town of Macleod, calculated to belittle the importance of that work I should like to say that the remnant of the council back in April, 1923, when the town was without a mayor and without a town superintendent, felt very grateful to Mr. McDonald when he agreed to lead the council along the way that at that time was dark indeed. Looking back from the present to that period the way may seem easy, but looking forward from that period when the tax rate was abnormally high and still far from adequate to make ends meet the course was anything but clear.

It is difficult these days to believe much of what we hear but we can still believe a great deal of what we see, and you, ladies and gentlemen who were property owners in those dark days and who are still tax payers have actually seen your tax bill gradually reduced to about one half. Municipal debt lessened, and a cash surplus piled up, and if the Brownlee Government could show us a similar record there would not be so much to criticize. There is still the question as to who pulled the town out of the hole, you, who retained your faith in the town and kept faith with the town by continuing to pay your taxes in the face of it all, to you is most of the credit due for pulling the town out of the hole.

Dr. Galbraith, the first speaker, made a very impressive address and established himself with Macleod people as an effective platform orator. He attacked the record of the Brownlee Government in all of its departments and showed conclusively that there is need in Edmonton for men of exceptional ability as administrators, men of the type of the Provincial Liberal leader, as proven by his record during the past seven years as head of the municipal administration of the town of Macleod, and he therefore urged the election of Mr. McDonald in this constituency.

Dr. Galbraith drew a vivid comparison involving the records of the McKenney King Government, the Brownlee Government and the administration in the town of Macleod. During a similar period of years, he said, the Dominion Government has reduced taxes in several departments, and paid off two hundred and fifty millions of the National debt; the Provincial Government has increased taxes, and despite many new sources of revenue has almost doubled the capital debt of the Province; and right at home you have the record of the town of Macleod, where your Mayor and Council have cut taxation almost in half, have paid off all maturing debentures, and have built up a cash surplus of over one hundred thousand dollars.

Dr. Galbraith attacked vigorously the Health Dept. of the Government, charging that this Dept. has shamefully neglected its legitimate work of Health Protection and Disease Prevention and devoted its activities toward spectacular stunts calculated to deceive the people.

In opening Capt. Shaw referred to the historic background of Macleod, mentioning in particular the coming of the N.W.M.P. under Col. Macleod and the founding of old Fort Macleod. Alberta is in the throes of a general election, he went on, which was wholly unequalled for. The present Government was elected for a period of five years, but comes before the country for re-election before their mandate has expired, and the only reason given is that we have lately received our natural resources.

Does Mr. Brownlee tell you what he is going to do with these natural resources? Does he formulate any plan for the exploitation of coal, gas and oil, or plans in connection with immigration. In fact, may we say, that we really have not yet received our natural resources, as this matter must be passed by the Imperial Parliament? Mr. Brownlee is just a shrewd enough politician to go to the country now instead of waiting for the uncertain outcome of this year's crop.

In referring to the telephone department, Capt. Shaw suggested that inasmuch as this utility was being run on such efficient, lucrative lines, as suggested by the ministers in their addresses, why not make a reduction in telephone rates?

The Baker school bill question was an example of the violation by the Government of democratic principles. Co-operation in this school measure had been rejected. The schools of the Province had never received anything from the present Government but reductions. First the grants had been reduced, then the number of inspectors, the latter action being taken despite the reports of inspectors that it was impossible for them to cover the ground.

The policing of Province also came in for attention from Mr. Shaw when he said the Government had refused to save $200,000 a year to the Province by arranging to have the Province policed by the R. C. M. P. Sharp criticism was levelled at the Government in reference to their keeping in London Hon. Herbert Greenfield to encourage immigration. Why is he there on this mission when we hear the cry of unemployment in the land? Is the maintenance of this man in London worth while? We hear much of companies which he is encouraging to come to Alberta to develop our oil resources, but where are they? If Mr. Greenfield must be employed by the Government, why not bring him home and give him employment?

Attention was also paid to slackness in the public health department, the provincial treasurer's department, etc., and in conclusion Capt. Shaw urged the sending to Edmonton of men of enlarged vision—men not cramped by class prejudice—men of the type of J. W. McDonald, K. C., provincial Liberal leader.

MRS. J. MORRISON IS ENTERTAINED

On Friday evening Mrs. John Baird and Mrs. Wm. Baird gave an evening party in honor of Mrs. Morrison, when a number of lady friends of Mrs. Morrison enjoyed a game of progressive whist, there being three tables. Mrs. J. Callie (sister of Mrs. Morrison) won the first prize and Mrs. Ray Baker was given the trophy. The hostesses gave delicious refreshments, and a was tinged with regret at the departure of the guest of the evening. Mrs. Morrison is one of the few remaining members of what was known some years ago as St. Andrew's Girls' Guild, a band of girls who grew up to womanhood in the church and did splendid work not only for the church, but when the new hospital was built in Macleod she was completely furnished one of the wards and she kept it supplied with linens and everything necessary for the upkeep of the ward. A few years ago the Ladies' Aid of the church took over the charge of the ward, and the remaining members of the Guild were now all members of the Aid.

The word has on its door a brass plate, "St. Andrew's Presbyterian Girls' Guild." Mrs. Morrison was one of that band of girls and all her friends regret to see her leaving the town and the things she has taken an interest in for the past 17 years. The members of St. Andrew's choir, Macleod, at close of the weekly practice on Thursday evening, met for a social hour, the occasion being a farewell send-off to Mrs. Joseph Morrison. Mrs. Morrison lost her husband about a year ago, and as her old father is now all alone, she decided to return home and look after him in his declining years. Mrs. Morrison came to Macleod about 17 years ago from Scotland, and has been here ever since. Her husband, John Morrison, was a very high opinion of the house held by Mr. Shield, and of the able and helpful advice which he had received from Mr. Shield on many occasions. No member of the house was better qualified to grasp the problems of the government than was the member for Macleod, and no member was more highly respected. On these grounds the premier made a strong appeal for the return of Mr. Shield on June 19. The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

The Premier

Premier Brownlee spoke for an hour and a half and kept his audience spellbound from start to finish. He gave a full resume of the financial affairs of the province, showing by charts how the monies had been raised and how they had been spent, comparing the finances of Alberta with the other provinces of the Dominion, which showed that Alberta stood second to none from a financial standpoint.

WEED CONTROL PROGRAMME

The Alberta Department of Agriculture has now completed its plans for the weed control programme of 1930. Under the Field Crops Branch the Province has been divided into fifteen districts. In each of these districts a Field Supervisor will be stationed. His duties will be to co-operate with Weed Inspectors appointed by Municipal Councils, and in Local Improvement Districts, in general Weed control work and the enforcement of The Noxious Weed Act. Farmers of the Province are urged to avail themselves of the services of these men.

PREMIER BROWNLEE SPEAKER AT MACLEOD SATURDAY

The largest gathering of men and women seen in Macleod for many a day greeted Premier J. E. Brownlee on Saturday night in the Macleod town hall, when he appeared on the platform in support of W. H. Shield, M. L. A., the U. F. A. candidate for the Macleod constituency. The hall was packed, floor and gallery, and the people were standing in the vestibule right out to the sidewalk. J. L. Fawcett, barrister, Macleod, was in the chair and he was accompanied on the platform by Premier Brownlee, W. H. Shield, M. L. A., Robert Patterson, ex-M. L. A., George Robertson, president, U. F. A.; W. C. Sherman, Granum; Jas. Freeman, Joseph Horner.

The chairman in his opening remarks spoke at considerable length of the affairs of the town of Macleod when he was mayor from 1919 to 1922, stating that the town was in a very bad state financially, in fact in a state of almost bankruptcy, and there was a proposal to put the town into the hands of a receiver. He claimed that while he was mayor he laid the foundation for saving the town from a receiver, and that Mr. McDonald, the present mayor, and Liberal candidate, was not correct in claiming all the credit for bringing the town out of its state of bankruptcy to the financial position it is in today. He said there was some credit due to the mayor and council who preceded Mr. McDonald's term of office, during the years 1919 till 1922.

Mr. Shield in his address gave an account of the work of the government in a number of the departments, of what had been accomplished during the past four years, and before closing he referred to his own efforts for Macleod and the Macleod constituency. He claimed that he had been able to do a considerable amount for Macleod, even though his opponents were stating that he had done nothing for Macleod.

No member of the house was better qualified to grasp the problems of the government than was the member for Macleod, and no member was more highly respected. On these grounds the premier made a strong appeal for the return of Mr. Shield on June 19. The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

The premier spoke in very laudatory terms of the very high opinion which he and the members of the house held of Mr. Shield, and of the able and helpful advice which he had received from Mr. Shield on many occasions. "WHY BRING THAT UP?" IS TRIUMPH IN FUNMAKING—FAMOUS RECORD AND RADIO STARS NOW IN TALKIES—MORAN AND MACK, THE TWO BLACK CROWS, MAKE INITIAL TALKING PICTURE APPEARANCE THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Moran and Mack, the Two Black Crows, now add to their photograph and radio fame by making their first screen appearance in Paramount's all talking comedy "Why Bring That Up?" a rapid fire story of the vaudeville stage introducing many of the numbers that they have recorded. In addition to these they present many new Moranisms and Mackisms.

"Why Bring That Up?" is from an original story by Octavus Roy Cohen, the famous author of negro stories. In the picture you see Moran meeting Mack, the forming of the famous team—their struggle for recognition and you climb with them to success. They show you just how they make up their funny patter and best of all you see them in real life as well as black face, doing their rickracking dialect.

Moran and Mack, the two Black Crows, have the backing of an elaborate musical show, in the final scenes of their opus. A dazzling array of stage talent! "Why Bring That Up?" is real, you fairly feel every situation and they are all of such character, just like their records, that a child of eight years can fully understand.

"Why Bring That Up?" is the all talking feature at the Empress theatre, this week. In the cast are also Evelyn Brent and Harry Green.

IS THE BROWNLEE GOVERNMENT DOING WELL?

With all of the arguments that the U. F. A. Government have made to justify their political existence they have not shown where they have reduced the taxes or where they have retrenched Provincial expenditures or where they have been co-operative in political activities. In the first place they have increased the Provincial debt 44 million dollars in the nine years of their administration. The debt has increased from 102 dollars per capita to 164 dollars per capita. They are spending $20,000 dollars per day more than the government was spending in 1921. The number of sources of revenue has increased from 39 to 174. This means that there are 75 new sources of income that the Brownlee Government has found. And with all the additional income they have not succeeded in reducing taxes. They cannot explain this. It is all very well for them to say that the Government is doing well. It is certainly doing well by the Government itself but is it doing well by the people who are paying the taxes? That is the question in the final analysis. Have your taxes been reduced in one single item? Have you become any richer by reason of adherence to the Brownlee Government? Is it a Farmers' Government or a Lawyers' Government? Who are the two heads of the Government? Mr. Brownlee and Mr. Lymburn. Both lawyers. The Brownlee Government has not announced any policy with regard to the Natural Resources. The Liberals favor the retention in clerkships of returned soldiers wherever practicable. In 4 successive years the Liberals offered co-operation in the construction of an Education Act but the Brownlee Government refused the co-operative offer.

THOMAS D. STARK APPOINTED NESTLE'S BROKER

Thomas D. Stark, of Stark and Sterling, has been appointed British Columbia Broker for Nestle's Condensed and Evaporated Milk by the Nestle's Food Co. of Canada Limited. Nestle's Evaporated Milk has experienced such a tremendous demand from the housewives of British Columbia that production in British Columbia of this popular brand became necessary some months back. This was a very popular move, as it not only made Nestle's Evaporated Milk a B. C. product, but it enabled the producers to cope successfully with the steadily increasing demand. The huge sales expansion resulting from this demand led to the further step of appointing Mr. Stark as broker. Mr. Stark is splendidly equipped to represent Nestle's, the world's largest producers and sellers of Condensed and Evaporated Milk, and his appointment will come as welcome news to the trade in British Columbia.

Public speaking teaches you to think fast on your feet. So does the glaring cafeteria patron behind you.

FRUIT GROWERS BENEFIT

The buyer of food products more than anyone else to-day must know that he is getting the quality he buys. The shipping point inspection service of the Fruit Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture has established the confidence of the "trade" from producer to consumer, in the reliability of the government certificate. From a modest 2,839 carloads inspected five years ago, the federal inspection service last year inspected 25,760 carloads of fruit and vegetables, an increase over the preceding year of 9,281 cars. More than that, the inspection service, having created confidence in quality and developed uniformity, has made inspected fruits and vegetables really popular on the larger markets, and in the export market premium prices have been obtained. The federal inspection service is a neutral determination of quality standard between buyer and seller established by certificate.

It appears to be working in other lines, so why not try taxing bootleggers to death?

Buy a Six of Course but be Sure it's a Super-Six

The Essex Challenger is a Super-Six. By its patented principle the ability of the 6-cylinder type is freed to the limit. It is responsible for a performance and smoothness that belong exclusively to the Essex Challenger. That is why we say—and more buyers every day are saying—"not just a Six, but a Super-Six."

ESSEX Challenger Gives Sparkling Performance

Essex performance comes from its completely balanced motor and power line. This balance of aluminum pistons, crankshaft, clutch and flywheel, coupled with the Lanchester Balancer gives more power and smoothness at all speeds.

Roadability and Safety

Longer wheelbase, larger tires and patented spring suspension make Essex the most roadable of cars. High speed with safety is possible because of the positive action of four-wheel brakes.

Interior appointments carry the same motif as fenders and lamps.

Upholstery is of finest quality. There is a graceful three-spoke steering wheel, and the instrument panel holds starter, electric fuel and oil level gauge as well as motometer.

This is the finest, best performing Essex value ever built. It holds scores of records established during continent-wide Challenger Week. See it and drive it. You will need no other proof that this is not just a six, but a Super-Six.

WEDDING BELLS

DIETT—DEMAN

A very pretty wedding was solemnized quietly at St. Augustine's Catholic Church, Granum, at 8 a. m., June 1st.

William George Robert, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Diett, of Calgary, and Josephine Sophia, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter DeMan, of Granum, were united in marriage. Father Hughes presided at the ceremony. Dinner was served at 3 p. m. and only immediate relatives were present. Mr. and Mrs. Diett left for a motor trip and on their return will reside in Calgary.

PREMIER BROWNLEE ADDRESSES U. F. A. RALLY AT GRANUM

A large number of both sexes attended the U. F. A. rally in the Granum theatre on Saturday afternoon. A McGregor took the chair and introduced the first speaker, W. H. Shield who spoke in the north-east part of the constituency for the first time. The questions dealt with briefly by Mr. Shield and Mr. Walker, who followed him were covered by Mr. Brownlee who addressed the meeting after being given a civic welcome by F. Kellicut and J. Boyle on behalf of the town council.

The premier covered a large field in a lucid and explanatory manner and was easily followed by those present. He first of all eulogized Mr. Shield as a legislator whose knowledge of finance and business ability had made him a valuable colleague whose help had been appreciated in the house for nine years. Turning to the political issues of the day he then compared the situation as it now is with that of 1921.

In 1921 he stated that the opposing parties and most of the press had predicted an overwhelming defeat for the farmers while today the newspapers of their opponents were at one in not only giving them credit for what they had done but predicting their return to power. The faults with which they were charged, extravagance, over taxation, group government, etc., were then gone into in detail in which the speaker was assisted by a chart. Previous to answering the charges of his opponent the premier reminded his audience that the opposition had been silent on two matters of far-reaching importance to the province—sale of the northern railways and natural resources. Dealing with the former he traced the history of negotiations with the C. N. R. and C. P. R. and showed that while in 1922, the railways were an increasing drain on the finances of the province and had been refused by the C. P. R. as worthless to them as an investment, under the management of the minister of railways they so increased in value that at the time of the sale they were able to dispose of them for $25,000,000.

As regards the natural resources the first offer by the Dominion Government was a return of the natural resources with a discontinuance of the annual subsidy. This the Alberta government rejected as like-wise subsequent offers until they were able to arrange not only the return of the natural resources but a substantial annual subsidy which increases with the increase in the population of the province.

Both pieces of legislation had the hearty endorsement of the opposition and the entire press of the province.

Dealing with the capital debt of the province the premier explained that like any sound business institution this was necessitated by the spreading of the payments on their public utilities and property over a number of years. The telephone system for instance which is worth $22,000,000 could be sold for 100 cents on the dollar. This, which in 1922 had been a liability, was now a valuable asset with a reserve of $2,000,000 for depreciation.

As to taxes, the increased income from taxation was due to consumption of liquor, increased number of motor licenses, increased consumption of gasoline. The only additional tax since 1922 was the 5 cents per gallon on gas. This tax is levied by every province in the Dominion and most of the states in the Union. Refuting the charge of extravagance the premier stated that their opponents could not specify any department of government administration, education, roads, pensions, hospital, etc., where retrenchment would be advisable. The government, he stated, appealed for re-election not on promises, but on what they had accomplished and that record was the best guarantee for the future.

The Care of the Young

Nothing brings so much comfort to Mother and Dad as the knowledge that the youngsters are growing bigger and stronger every day. Playing hard all day—sleeping soundly all night. Nestlé's Evaporated Milk has brought this comfort to thousands of happy parents.

And here's the Reason! Nestlé's Evaporated Milk is just thick set of fresh cow's milk with part of the water removed—then sealed and sterilized in air-tight containers. Add water again and you have absolutely pure, safe milk—but more readily digestible than ordinary milk because the large fat globules of the milk have been broken up into small ones of the same size as in Mother's milk. Also, the curds which form in the stomach when Nestlé's Evaporated Milk is used are soft and flaky and therefore easily digestible.

Use Nestlé's Evaporated Milk for Your Baby. Use it in coffee—in cocoa—in tea. Use it in all cooking and as a beverage by diluting with one to two parts water.
